

Below the lyrics of the song :

Translation of Jérémy frérot's song: "A New Man"

I unleashed horses

Onwards to great new days, I added water to rivers

And till now they keep running

I've started swimming breaststroke

In order to be braver

I've been following stars

And till now they keep on moving forwards

I am water and I'm drifting away,

Humans/human beings should not be there

I am water there on the shore, humans are running hastily/speeding

I am water, being high, dreaming, idealizing

I can see from the very top/from above, I get up/I stand up, A new Man
